

(I know it is quite scandalous to insinuate that you are not fair.)

Senior & Junior Council are all very well but Personal Council who was in the car so long before the others & who gave more time, thought & care than anyone else, should, at least, come before them —

As soon as I came home that last Monday, Willin asked me what you had said about the matter.
I told him you were obstinate, & he said he did not think it was right at all — I said - well, why

Hall Mills - 105.53 - correspondence - New Brunswick. N.J.
1927. 1. 12 - FH - TPF January 12th 27

My dear Mr. Pfeiffer —

I am obliged to refer once more to a letter which I wrote you just before you sailed & about which we talked while taxiing to the P.R. 13 Station — I am just as embarrassed as ever, but the fact remains that William Willin now is at all satisfied with the accounts you furnished, that is in regards to a certain part —

I have talked the matter over with those of my family who are most interested, & they agree with me that the fees are not fairly proportioned.

Hall Mills - 105.64 - Correspondence - 1927.1.12 - FHTF don't you tell him that yourself - so he wrote the letter which I never saw although I addressed it.

Perhaps there are difficulties in connection with the other attorneys, but must you please consider as all that has been done for both Wallace & myself during the four years & especially before the trial commenced!

Remember I am your client & as such feel I should have things as I wish them!

I did not mean to write any business to you while you are away, but I do ask that you take just a few quiet moments (if there are any in Rome.) I decide that I am quite right & that you are gracefully going to let me do as I wish!

As I said before, this has nothing to do with the other defendants nor has it anything to do with any feelings on my part except those that desire justice. Wasn't that what we were all striving for?

I know your eyes are twinkling as you read this but you are to take it seriously & to know that I am going to send a check as soon as I return.

Very sincerely

Frances Hall Hall